About the Oxford University Brass Band

Last term the band was declared the 6th best university brass band in Great Britain at the first ever Uni Brass Band Championships in Lancaster. Alan Fernie, a famous composer, conductor and arranger in the brass band world described us as ‘A good band... you can entertain!’ Tonight, in our first half, we play for you the exact programme that won us these remarks—we hope you enjoy!

Now in its 6th year, this non-auditioning, completely student run band continues to take on challenging programmes, perform regular concerts, go on tour (last year to Bournemouth) and play at local parades and the Whit Friday marches. We also play in an annual Varsity Concert with Cambridge University Brass Band.

Our next concert will be on Sat 26th Nov (7th week of Michalemas), Wesley Memorial Church, Oxford, 7.30pm. For more details, or enquiries about joining or hiring the band, please email brass@oums.org.

About the Conductor

David is writing a thesis on the life and work of Sir Edward Abraham and is active as a singer and conductor. In Oxford, he has taken principal roles in Schubert's Fierrabras and several Gilbert and Sullivan operas and has performed Die Schöne Müllerin in recital. He was a member of the a cappella group Out of the Blue. In addition to OUWO and OUBB, David directs a singing group at St. Peter's Church, Wolvercote and formerly conducted UCMS Chorus, with whom he presented Brahms' Ein Deutches Requiem in the Sheldonian Theatre. Recently, he has played Mephistophilis in Marlowe's Doctor Faustus. David studies singing with Gillian Knight, and his future plans include Schumann's Dichterliebe with Roger Allen, Vaughan Williams' Five Mystical Songs and creating the role of Jamie in the world premiere of The Sleeper by Stephen Deazley with Welsh National Youth Opera.
